CONTEST MASTER

CM: Good morning (afternoon/evening), Fellow Toastmasters! Welcome to the Humorous Speech Contest for Club/Area/Division/District 47.

I am _____ and I am honored to serve as your Contest Master today.

At this time, please help me to acknowledge the Dignitaries in the room. (Acknowledge any Trio/DEC members, District Leaders & dignitaries using their proper titles)

Thank you for serving our members. On with this evening's contest!

The purposes of the Humorous Speech Contest are to provide an opportunity to learn by observing the more proficient speakers who have benefited from their Toastmasters training, and to recognize the best as encouragement to all and of course, tickle a funny bone or two.

The Sergeant-at-Arms are instructed not to admit anyone into the contest room while the speakers are giving their presentations.

Please welcome our Chief Judge, Toastmaster _____, to provide an overview of the rules of the Humorous Speech Contest.

CHIEF JUDGE

CJ: Thank you Contest Master. The Humorous Speech Contest follows all rules outlined in the General Rules section of the current Speech Contest Rulebook. The following additions and exceptions apply:

- It has been confirmed that all contestants are eligible. To be eligible a contestant must:
  - Be a toastmaster in good standing of a club in good standing
  - Not presently be an International, District or Area officer, nor have declared the intent to run for such offices.
- Contestants must create their own speeches and each must be substantially original. Twenty-five percent or less of the speech may be devoted to quoting, paraphrasing, or referencing another person's content. Any quoted, paraphrased, or referenced content must be identified during the Speech presentation. Contestants who reference another contestants' speech will be disqualified.
- Speakers may stay in the room. Should they choose to leave the room during the contest, they may return during the one minute of silence while the judges are marking their ballot.
- The time of the speech is to be 5-7 minutes. Any speaker speaking less than 4:30 or more than 7:30 will be disqualified.
- The timing lights/cards will be activated as follows: (ask the timekeepers to activate the lights/cardboards as you indicate timelines)
  - Green light at 5:00
  - Yellow light at 6:00
  - Red light at 7:00 – which will stay on until the speaker has finished speaking. No notice shall be given should a speaker go over time.
- Timing starts with the first word uttered or when the speaker uses any form of communication to the audience.
- There will be one minute of silence between speakers so the judges may complete their forms.
- All judges have been briefed and are confirmed qualified and eligible to judge. There is a secret tiebreaker known only to me, whose ballot will only be utilized in the event of a tie.
- Judges have been instructed NOT to consider time in their ranking of the speakers.
- Protests are limited to eligibility and originality and can only be lodged by Voting Judges and Contestants. Any protest should be lodged with the Chief Judge or Contest Chair prior to the announcement of the winner. Once announced, the results are final.
