SAA#1: Ladies & Gentlemen, the Contest officially begins in 5 minutes. (repeat).

2 minutes before the start:

SAA#1: Ladies & Gentlemen, the Contest officially begins in 2 minutes. (repeat).

At Go:

SAA#1: Good morning (afternoon/evening) fellow Toastmasters and welcomed guests! This event is now called to order. Please join me in the Pledge of Allegiance. (Recite the pledge). At this time, please silence your phones or any other devices that may distract from this contest. Thank you.

Now, please help me to give a warm welcome to our Contest Master Toastmaster _____.

CONTEST MASTER

CM: Good morning (afternoon/evening), Fellow Toastmasters & most welcome guests! Welcome to the Table Topics Contest for Club/Area/Division/District 47.

I am _____ and I am honored to serve as your Contest Master.

At this time, please help me to acknowledge the Dignitaries in the room. (Acknowledge any Trio/DEC members, District Leaders & dignitaries using their proper titles)

Thank you for serving our members. On with this evening's contest!

The purposes of the Table Topics Speech Contest are to provide an opportunity to learn by observing the more proficient speakers who have benefited from their Toastmasters training, and to recognize the best as encouragement to all.

The Sergeant-at-Arms are instructed to not admit anyone into the room while the speakers are giving their presentations.

Please welcome our Chief Judge, Toastmaster _____, to provide an overview of the rules of the Table Topics Contest

CHIEF JUDGE

CJ: The Table Topics Contest follows all rules outlined in the General Rules section of the current Speech Contest Rulebook. The following additions and exceptions apply:

- It has been confirmed that all contestants are eligible. To be eligible a contestant must:
 - Be a toastmaster in good standing of a club in good standing
 - Not presently be an International, District or Area officer, nor have declared the intent to run for such offices.
- All contestants shall receive the same Topic, which shall be of a general nature. The Topic is selected by the Contest Chair or designee.
- The Topic shall be of reasonable length, shall not require a detailed knowledge and shall lead to an opinion or conclusion.
- Contestants will receive no advance knowledge of the Topic until the moment they are introduced by the Contest Chair.
- Contestants may not use digital or other devices during the contest to gain an unfair advantage
- When the contest begins, all Contestants except the first shall leave the contest room and remain in the breakout room under the supervision of the Contest Sergeant-at-Arms until it is their turn to speak.
- Each Contestant will be introduced by announcing the Contestant's Name, the Topic, the Topic and the Contestant's Name.
- At the conclusion of each speech & during the minute of silence, the next speaker will return to the room.
- All Speeches delivered by Contestants must conform to the Timing Guidelines for the Contest. Table Topics™ Contest speeches are one minute to two minutes. A contestant will be disqualified if the speech is less than one minute or more than two minutes 30 seconds.
- The timing lights/cards will be activated as follows: (ask the timekeepers to activate the lights/cardboards as you indicate timelines)
 - Green light at 1:00
 - Yellow light at 1:30
 - Red light at 2:00 – which will stay on until the speaker has finished speaking. No notice shall be given should a speaker go over time.
- All judges have been briefed and are confirmed qualified and eligible to judge. There is a secret tie breaker known only to me, whose ballot will only be utilized in the event of a tie.
- Protests are limited to eligibility and originality and can only be lodged by Voting Judges and Contestants. Any protest should be lodged with the Chief Judge or Contest Chair prior to the announcement of the winner. Once announced, the results are final.

Contest Master, that completes the overview of the Speech Contest Rules. Let the Contest begin!
